SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND CIVILIANS, IN A FIGHT

Four Civilians Arrested After Remarks About Uniforms.

A "free-for-all" fight between soldiers and civilians at Seventeenth and Market streets about 1:30 o'clock this morning resulted in the arrest of four civilians. Six regulars of the United States army and two members of the First Regiment asserted that James Earle, employed in a cafe at Seventeenth and Market streets, made slighting remarks about their uniforms. William Anderson and Company A. First Regiment, knocked Earle down.

Three of Earle's friends went to his assistance and two sailors joined forces with the soldiers. Blows were exchanged, and when patrolmen arrived one of the sailors had the four civilians covered with an unloaded revolver. The civilians had their hands elevated. Earle and his friends were arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. The friends said they were John Maloney and Raymond Volles of Fifteenth and Warren streets and John de Priest of 1535 Franklin avenue.

RED BLOOD THE KEY TO KEEN LIVING

Good food, pure air and Pepto-Mangan will give you rich, red blood.

The raw material of your blood is the food on your plate at mealtimes. The quantity and character of that food; how it is cooked and served; how it is eaten—all these factors have a vital bearing on the quality of your blood. If you partake moderately of plain, nourishing foods; if you masticate your food thoroughly; if these are your regular habits of eating, you are laying solid foundations for rich, red blood.

If, on the other hand, you are violating in every way the laws of right eating, you are only laying the foundations of impure blood and the long train of physical disorders that spring from impure blood. So school yourself to eat properly. Also remember that it is a health necessity to fill your lungs to capacity with fresh air several times a day. Sleep well, rest well, and as soon as you feel yourself running down, start to take Pepto-Mangan.

Pepto-Mangan "The Red Blood Builder"

Pepto-Mangan is a scientifically prepared blood enricher which increases the number of the red blood cells and their capacity to carry life-giving oxygen to all the cells and tissues of your body. It is a splendid general tonic and appetizer, a great help to Nature in restoring your whole being to a sound, vigorous condition. Pepto-Mangan is exceedingly pleasant to taste, easy to digest, promptly assimilated. Endorsed by physicians everywhere.

Friendly Warning: Don't be taken in by substitutes. Real Pepto-Mangan comes only in the original bottle and sealed package shown above bearing the name Gude. Pepto-Mangan is made by M. J. Breitenbach Co., Manufacturing Chemists, New York, and is for sale at all drug stores.

AMERICAN PEACE PLAN INDORSED BY LONDON MEETING

Notable Gathering Approves Proposal for League as Championed by President.

VISCOUNT BRYCE PRESIDES

Archbishop of Canterbury, Gen. Smuts and Baron Buckmaster Among Speakers.

LONDON, May 15.—A league of nations to enforce peace, as championed by President Wilson, William H. Taft and other American statesmen, was enthusiastically indorsed yesterday in a resolution unanimously adopted at a meeting attended by 1200 representative men, including clergymen and members of the Houses of Lords and Commons, held under the auspices of the League of Nations society. Viscount Bryce presided. The other speakers were the Most Rev. Randall Thomas Davidson, Archbishop of Canterbury; Lieutenant-General Jan Christian Smuts, Baron Buckmaster, Lord Hugh Cecil and Viscount Hewart.

Resolution Indorsed. The resolution, which was offered by Gen. Smuts and seconded by the Archbishop of Canterbury, read:

"It is expedient in the interest of mankind that some machinery should be set up after the present war for the purpose of maintaining international right and general peace, and this meeting welcomes the suggestion put forward to this purpose by the President of the United States and other influential statesmen in America and commends to the sympathetic consideration of the British people the idea of forming a union of free nations for the preservation of permanent peace."

Thunderous applause greeted Lord Buckmaster when, in supporting the resolution, he advocated Germany's inclusion in the proposed league. "This league of nations will fail," he said, "unless Germany is admitted into it. If she is excluded it will be nothing but a league against Germany, in which case I see no prospect before the world but the unending darkness of night. We have got to separate the German rulers from the German people. We must destroy the one and support the other. If that is done, I believe our future will be safe."

Objects of Meeting. Viscount Bryce said that the objects of the meeting were "to advocate an agreement among civilized states for the purpose of providing for a peaceful settlement and for the observance of international law."

The speaker would be a stupendous calamity, he declared, if it did not suggest a means to escape from its repetition by changing the hearts of the peoples of the world.

Lieutenant-General Smuts, famous South African military leader, said: "If a hundredth part of the thought given to this war were given toward peace there never would be war again. I believe a passion for peace has been born of this war which will prove greater than any passion for gain or conquest. As far as is humanly possible, such wars as this should never be tolerated."

"However, there is danger in believing too much in treaties until we have a radical change in the hearts of men. I think that change is coming. There must be no patchwork peace, or peace which is simply a compromise of conflicting interests. Every nation must have a choice in its own destiny and not be cut and carved to please the great Powers."

President Wilson Quoted. The Archbishop of Canterbury quoted extensively from President Wilson's speeches since the war began.

"President Wilson," said the Archbishop, "pointed out a year ago that this war could not have come crashing upon the world if there had been time for the civilized peoples of the world to look quietly at the issues involved and at the massive rights and wrongs of what was impending. The very horrors of war were due to the advance in our scientific proficiency in things mechanical—to our conquest of the air, to our chemical skill in explosives and other engines of wrath."

The Archbishop pleaded for a revival of international arbitration, which he declared was on the increase, and the outbreak of the war. The formation of a league of nations to enforce peace, he admitted, was no easy task, but he added that "unless the foremost spokesmen of the Anglo-Saxon peoples on either side of the Atlantic are under the empty hallucination it can be done and we mean, please God, to set it forward."

Viscount Bryce read letters of regret at their inability to be present from William Ferguson, Premier of New Zealand, and Sir Robert L. Borden, Premier of Canada, which he said indicated that "the great dominions are with us in the good work for peace."

LATIN QUARTER SPAGHETTI-LESS

London Supply Exhausted When Importations Are Prohibited. LONDON, May 15.—Soho, London's Latin quarter, has just passed through a spaghetti-less week. The national dish of Italy had long ago been placed on the list of prohibited imports, but the supplies on hand were not exhausted until a week ago. Then all Soho mourned.

Now, however, this is all changed. An Italian who conducts a table d'hôte resort in the Italian colony came to the rescue by setting up a macaroni factory. He has not been able to make spaghetti, which requires special machinery to make the long, thin strands, but he is turning out miles of the long, narrow ribbons called macaroni. This will have to suffice until the spaghetti-making machinery arrives.

GERMAN CATHOLIC VEREIN URGES MEMBERS TO LOYALTY

Central Organization Declares They Should Support United States in Its Present Policy.

The German Roman Catholic Central Verein has sent out to 130,000 of its members copies of the resolutions adopted at a meeting in St. Louis May 6 by the executive board, in which citizens of German stock are urged to support the United States in its present policy, and to use every effort to eradicate any signs of distrust.

One statement in the resolution reads: "We know, therefore, what our duty demands of us and what we owe to our country, the United States, and we are ready to act accordingly." The resolution concludes with the hope that the organizations affiliated with the Central Verein will "labor studiously to dispel the unjustified distrust that is here and there apparent."

BRITISH STRIKES NOW WILL HAMPER OFFENSIVE IN JUNE

Munitions Minister Says Engineers Are Holding Up Building of Big Guns, Tanks and Airplane Motors.

LONDON, May 15.—Dr. Christopher Addison, minister of munitions, in the course of a statement dealing with the engineers' strike said: "The people say the army in France has heaps of shells. But that isn't the point. I am glad to say they have plenty of shells at the front, but these strikes are particularly affecting such things as big guns, tanks, and airplane motors. The supply of these has been gravely affected."

"A continuation of the offensive in June depends upon the things that now are being finished in the shops. We have lost three weeks' supply of important war munitions because of the strike at Barrow. That will be felt later, but what is being held up now is that which will affect the soldiers in June and July as they will not, unless rapid work is resumed, be able to go forward with that protection from the tanks that they should have. This is the gravest feature of the whole thing."

Russell, a conductor, was killed and the motorman and one passenger were seriously injured late last night, when a street car bound for Kansas City, Kan., left the tracks on the Allen street viaduct and fell 90 feet into a creek.

Actually Removes Hair Roots, or Money Back!

(Brand New Method; Works Like Magic.)

To have the superfluous hairs come out, roots and all, before one's very eyes, sounds almost too good to be true. Yet many thousands of women have proved to their own satisfaction that this can be accomplished—easily, instantly, harmlessly—by means of the wonderful phaelectone process.

This method is not to be compared at all with any liquid, powder or paste, nor with electrolysis or anything else. Nothing like it ever originated. It causes the hairs to come out entire, roots included, leaving the skin smooth and hairless as a babe's. Its action is so positive, so certain, every drugist sells phaelectone under a money-back guarantee. It is non-odorous, non-irritating, non-poisonous—a child could safely use it. Get a small stick of phaelectone today, follow the simple instructions; you will have a real, affordable surprise—ANY.

BRITISH ARE USING MANY DEVICES TO COMBAT U-BOATS

Silence Regarding Number Sunk
Conceals Fate and Cause
From Germany.

SUCCESS ONLY AS PIRATES

English Writer Says No Big
Warship Has Been Sunk by Submarine for Two Years.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Without minimizing in any degree the seriousness of Germany's submarine warfare, there is a ray of hope and encouragement in the reasons for secrecy on the part of Great Britain concerning just what is being accomplished in stalking them. In a communication to the National Geographic Society, Sydney Brooks, the English journalist, gives some of the strategic reasons for silence relative to the success with which the British admiralty is meeting in bagging U-boats. A part of the communication is issued as the following bulletin by the society:

"Just as Great Britain never advertises the feats of her armies, so she allows the world to think that the Germans are having it pretty much their own way with their submarines. As a matter of fact, the German submarines have scored very few legitimate successes—by which I mean successes that conform to the usages of civilized warfare. It must be nearly two years since they sank a British man-of-war of any importance.

No Word of U-Boats Sunk.
"As pirates preying upon fishing smacks, trawlers, Atlantic liners, and the merchantmen of all nations, they have been a success. Otherwise it is, I believe, the opinion of most naval men that in Germany hands the submarine has proved disappointingly ineffective. "People, I remember, were thrown into a state of quite unbalanced admiration when the Deutschland appeared in American waters. It was spoken of as one of the most remarkable achievements of the war. Few stopped to remember—even indeed if they ever knew—that the war was only a few months old when 10 British submarines crossed the Atlantic from Halifax to the British Isles—the first submarines in naval history to make the journey under their own power.

"While we publish the number of vessels sunk by German submarines we say not a word about the U-boats whose careers are brought to a sudden stop. I do not know how many of them we have caught, sunk or destroyed. It may be 180; it may be 200; it may be 220. They come out and they do not return, and there is no one in Germany, and perhaps not half a dozen people in England, who know what becomes of them.

Germans Do Not Know Fate.
"The reasons for our secrecy must be tolerably obvious to anyone who thinks the matter over. All that the Germans are able to infer from the failure of any given U-boat to return to port is that somehow or other it has been lost. But how or where they cannot tell.

"It may have been through some error of structure or design—a thought to send a chill down the spine of every admiralty official. It may have been through a mistake in navigation. It may have been through one or other of the endless and constantly changing devices that British ingenuity has evolved and brought into play against them. It may, too, have happened near the German coast or after the U-boat had reached its appointed station. They cannot tell. "They are faced with a blank wall of possibilities that they have no means of verifying. Weeks must often elapse before they can be sure that a submarine which they thought was operating in a certain area had really perished and that another boat should be dispatched to take its place.

Are Captured Sometimes.
"Sometimes, however, the veil of mystery is partly lifted. Sometimes a German U-boat is towed up the Thames, moored to the embankment, and from $5,000 to $10,000 collected for some naval charity by throwing it open to the public. Sometimes if you are dining with a naval officer you will hear wondrous tales of submarines netted, bombed by aeroplanes even when they are well below the surface, hunted and caught by destroyers, induced by one ruse after another to show themselves where they can be got at.

"Sometimes, too, in a British port the men of the merchant marine will tell you of Homeric combats that would have warmed the heart of Nelson and Farragut and made Drake and Frobenius gasp and stare.

"But these are mere haphazard personal gleanings. No one knows the full extent of the harvest or how it has been gathered in. But we do know enough—or, at any rate, we think we do to feed fairly confident that the Germans can attempt nothing and can invent nothing that we cannot find the means of countering; and that confidence has been rather more than justified by all that has happened since Feb. 1."

Would Commit U. S. to Irish Cause.
WASHINGTON, May 15.—Representative Mason of Illinois, Republican, has introduced a joint resolution which would declare Irish freedom one of the purposes of the entry of the United States into the war, commit the United States to stand for Irish home rule in peace negotiations and to purchase $100,000,000 of Irish Government bonds.

Five Customers Locked in Ice Box. Five customers at the saloon of Thomas Lavin, 481 Easton avenue, were crowded into the ice box by two robbers last night. Two men using an automobile held up the saloon of William Mooney, 1900 Olive street, locked the bartender in a side room and took $15.

DANIELS EXCUSED AS LAMAR TRIAL WITNESS

Judge Says Defense in Conspiracy Case May Take Deposition of Navy Secretary.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Federal Judge Cushman, presiding at the trial of David Lamar, Franz Rintelen, Captain in the German navy, and other for alleged conspiracy to disrupt the munition industry of the country in 1915, today blocked Lamar's efforts to have Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, called here to testify in his defense.

"I received this message from Secretary Daniels," Judge Cushman said: "I know nothing whatever about the case. I trust it will not be necessary for me to appear, as matters of official importance demand my presence in Washington."

Lamar resumed the stand in his own behalf, continuing his testimony in regard to the interest he said William Jennings Bryan took in the anti-munition traffic movement shortly after his resignation as Secretary of State. Henry B. Martin, a defendant, told him, Lamar testified, that Bryan, in a private conversation, bitterly denounced the "Munition Trust" and the men of it, who, he said, in 1915, were bringing pressure to bear on the President to force the country into war. Bryan expressed approval, Lamar said Martin told him, of the anti-munition traffic movement, saying it would "go down into history as a good thing."

Lamar testified yesterday that the plans out of which grew Labor's National Peace Council were first discussed by him with the Rev. Dr. Thomas C. Hall, a New York clergyman, through whom he met Capt. Rintelen, who gave him money to start an anti-munitions traffic campaign. Lamar said he went to Indianapolis with Martin after he received the German's money and that Martin got in touch with former Representatives H. Robert Fowler and Frank Buchanan, also defendants. Martin told him, Lamar testified, that both these men denounced the "Munition Trust" and that "Buchanan took a very advanced position and would go to any lengths to keep this country out of the war."

TESTIMONY IN SHOE MACHINERY CO. SUIT TO BEGIN ON JULY 9

Court Sets Date After Heated Arguments Over Delay in Action

After a heated argument between counsel for the Government and for the United Shoe Machinery Co., over delays which have occurred in the hearing of the Government's suit against the corporation, Judge Trierer, in the United States District Court here, today, set July 9 as a time when the taking of testimony in the case shall begin.

The suit is directed against the "buying clause" in the company's contracts with shoe manufacturers, requiring them to buy their material from the company. It was filed in St. Louis three years ago.

J. Constantine Smythe, special assistant to the Attorney-General, charged, in a statement to the court, that counsel for the defense had made trivial excuses for failure to agree with the Government on a date for a hearing. C. P. Severance of St. Paul, for the defense, said in reply, that the company had not acted on trial reasons. The court, in setting July 9 as the time for taking of testimony, said the Government must complete its hearings in 90 days, and then, after 30 days, the defense must begin taking testimony, this to be completed in 90 days, with another 30-day interval before the Government takes testimony in rebuttal.

ENTENTE WARNED AGAINST AUSTRIAN TERMS OF PEACE

Bohemian Leader Says Enough Will Not Be Yielded to Remove Her as Menace.

MUST BE DISMEMBERED

Prof. Masaryk Declares Races Must Be Separated to Assure Permanent Peace.

Correspondence of the Associated Press. LONDON, May 15.—"Let the entente Allies beware against giving Austria-Hungary too liberal terms in any agreement for a separate peace," declares Prof. Masaryk, the Bohemian political leader, who was condemned to death by the Austrian Government four months ago for high treason. He is at present an exile in London, and discussed with a party of correspondents the recent Associated Press reports that Austria is seeking a separate peace through agents in Switzerland. "There is no doubt that Austria would be glad to come to some arrangements," he said. "These peace moves must be a source of great humiliation to many honest Austrians, no matter how much they are forced on her by economic and political conditions. Austria is not playing fair to her partner. What she is doing now to Germany is, speaking plainly, treachery. Austria is trying to get out of the war and doesn't know how to go about it."

Many Races Against War. "The difference between Germany and Austria is that the German nation is united while the majority of the Austrian nation has been against the war all along. Nevertheless Austria initiated and provoked the war; Germany merely accepted the situation and came in."

Aside from the German-Austrians and the Magyars the two ruling classes, all the nations of Austria-Hungary have been against war from the start. This applies especially to the Bohemians. Bohemian regiments repeatedly declined to fight and did everything in their power to impede the Central Powers and help the enemy. Bohemia has been thoroughly punished for all this. The Bohemian soldiers were sent to dangerous fronts, their regiments were diluted with various pleasant elements, their leaders were thrown into prison.

Dismemberment Necessary. "All this has not made Bohemia any more friendly to the ruling Powers or the war. The whole Bohemian nation is against Austria and against the war. The same applies to other elements in the Austro-Hungarian monarchy: the South Slavs, the Poles and the Austrian-Rumanians. "But Austria's present maneuvers toward peace ought not to deceive the entente. She is willing, no doubt, to sacrifice some territory, but not enough to remove her as a menace. The dismemberment of Austria-Hungary is just as essential to permanent peace in Europe as the destruction of military Prussianism."

Bohemia with the Slovaks should become a separate independent State. The Italian elements in the monarchy should go to Italy, the Rumanian elements to Rumania; the Ruthenians to Russia; the Poles to Poland, and the South Slavs to Serbia. "There would remain the German Austrians and the Magyars in separate states. This is the only possible way of crushing out the Mittel-Europa idea. If Poland and Bohemia are free, "Central Europe" cannot exist. "I believe also that the dynasty in Austria must go. The question is democracy or dynasty. Bohemia is for a republican form of government. The spirit of Austria must be changed. Dynastic Austria will always be dangerous because so closely linked with Germany. Nothing but democracy and dismemberment can achieve a really democratic reconstruction of Europe."

WILL RAID EAGLES' CLUB AGAIN

Capt. Gaffney Says Liquor Is Being Sold Illegally.

Although Prosecuting Attorney Siden refused to issue warrants for the men arrested in the raid on the Eagle's Club, Jefferson and Lafayette avenues, Sunday, Capt. Gaffney of the Southern District said today that the club was selling liquor in violation of the law and that he would continue to make raids.

Among those arrested Sunday was H. N. Morgan, newly appointed superintendent of the Workhouse, who attributed the raid to politics. Siden held yesterday that no evidence had been produced to show that liquor had been illegally sold at the Eagle's Club.

FRENCH PASSENGER SHIP SUNK; 158 SAVED

Medjrida, 1900 Tons, Torpedoed When on Way From Algeria to Marseilles.

PARIS, May 15.—One hundred and fifty-eight persons from the torpedoed

French passenger steamer Medjrida, sunk while on her way from Algeria to Marseilles, have been picked up by a passing ship, it was learned today. The survivors have not yet been reported in full. The Medjrida was a vessel of 1918 tons gross. Seventeen French merchantmen were sunk by German submarines in February, March and April, according to an official statement issued yesterday. In the same period nine French vessels were attacked by underwater craft but made their escape. No armed merchantmen have fallen prey to the U-boats. The statement says:

"Statistics for the first three months of Germany's unrestricted submarine campaign is as far as they concern the French merchant marine, show the following results: "February—Sunk, 4; attacked and escaped, 1. "March—Sunk, 5; attacked and escaped, 2. "April—Sunk, 8; attacked and escaped, 6. "Armed merchantmen have in every case escaped from submarines. "During this period French patrol boats have had 12 engagements with submarines, French hydroairplanes have fought them 12 times, and there have been 16 engagements between armed merchantmen and submarines."

WOMAN SUES TO TEST MILL CREEK SEWER TAX

Acts As Plaintiff for Association Opposing Levy for $3,400,000 Improvement.

Suit to test the validity of the $3,400,000 Mill Creek sewer tax was filed yesterday by Mrs. Mary Gallion, a widow, of 3239 Vista avenue. She asks the Court to determine whether it is legal to hold a lien against her realty in the Mill Creek Sewer District on account of an unpaid special tax bill for the improvement.

Her attorney, H. A. Loevy, said the bill amounted to about $50. He explained that Mrs. Gallion is a member of the Mill Creek Valley Sewer Tax Defense Association, which has 1000 members, none of whom has yet paid the tax. She was selected by the association to file the tax test suit. Loevy also represents the association.

The Carter Construction Co., which built the sewer, the Mississippi Valley Trust Co. and the Mercantile Trust Co. are the defendants. Loevy understood that the two trust companies held all the Mill Creek tax bills for collection. He announced that it would be contended at the trial that the sewer tax was illegal on the ground that it should have been assessed against the city generally, instead of a group of property owners living in the district.

The defense association contends the sewer is a public and not a private benefit and that while it drains the streets of the district it does not serve as a drain for the homes, none of the houses being connected with the new sewer. They are drained by the old sewer.

A property owner has five years from the time a special tax bill is issued to pay the tax. Many of the bills have been paid.

$25,000,000 MORE TO BRITAIN

Advance to Allies for War Purposes Totals $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Great Britain has received a third installment of $25,000,000 of the $100,000,000 which the United States has agreed to lend to meet British purchases in this country during May.

This brings the amount advanced to Great Britain thus far up to $275,000,000 and the total to all the allies, exclusive of the $75,000,000 to be loaned to Belgium for feeding the population in occupied areas, up to $450,000,000. The other $250,000,000 has been divided between France and Italy.

It is understood that Great Britain is purchasing supplies on behalf of Russia in this country, there having been so far no loan made by this Government to Russia.

EXPECTS POSTPONEMENT OF SOCIALIST PEACE CONFERENCE

Danish Paper Says Germany's Refusal of Passports to One Group Causes Disappointment.

COPENHAGEN, May 15.—According to the Politiken, the bureau for the proposed neutral peace conference will probably issue a statement that the international Socialist conference at Stockholm, scheduled to open today, is postponed. The paper says that great dissatisfaction prevails among the delegates.

The news that the German independent Socialists have been refused passports is expected to cause the bureau to refuse to negotiate with the Scheide-mann group. Emile Vandervelde, leader of the Belgian Socialists, declares that the refusal of the German authorities to issue passports except to Scheide-mann and his followers is clear proof of the desire of the German people for peace.

The Dutch-Scandinavian Socialist Committee at Stockholm has received Emile Vandervelde, Hjalmar Branting, the Swedish leader, and M. Rubanovich, a Russian Socialist delegate, who expressed their views on the international situation. Later Jap Borghjerg, the Danish Socialist editor, appeared before the committee and related his experiences on his visit to Russia.

H. Borghjerg, in reply to a question, said that he had acted in Russia entirely on his own initiative.

PREACHER PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO VILLISCA AX MURDERS

Tells Newspaper He Couldn't Be Guilty of Killing People He Never Saw.

RED OAK, Mo., May 15.—The Rev. Lynn George J. Kelley, arrested yesterday in connection with the ax murders at Villisca, in 1912, pleaded not guilty in the District Court here today. Kelley waived reading of the indictment. He was accompanied by his wife.

"I am a law-abiding citizen," Kelley said in a statement to newspaper men. "I'll let the law take its course. I am not guilty. I couldn't be guilty of such a terrible crime as that. I couldn't be guilty of killing people I never saw and didn't know."

The order issued by the Montgomery grand jury April 30, directing that Kelley be removed to Des Moines for safe keeping pending further action by the State authorities, will be the subject of argument by attorneys for Kelley and for the State.

Suspended German Clerks Discharged.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The German clerks in the employ of the Guaranty Trust Co., who received an indefinite leave of absence with pay after the break in diplomatic relations between this country and Germany, have been notified that they are no longer in the employ of the company. Their salaries will cease June 1, in the case of unmarried men, while the married men will receive their salaries up to July 1.

MRS. C. V. H. ROBERTS IS GRANTED DIVORCE

Former Eugenia Bakewell Testifies Husband Constantly Worried Her for Money.

Judge Hennings today granted to Mrs. Eugenia Bakewell Roberts a divorce from Charles V. H. Roberts, a broker. Mrs. Roberts is a daughter of Attorney Paul Bakewell.

Under the decree Mrs. Roberts is permitted to continue to live in an apartment at Maryland and Euclid avenues until Aug. 1 and Roberts is to pay the rent. It also was agreed that he should pay $30 a month for the support of their children—Eugenia, 10, and Margaret, 8. He is to have custody of the children twice a week and during the entire month of August.

The Court ordered that when one parent has the children the other must be permitted to telephone to them and neither parent must conceal the telephone number from the other. Mrs. Roberts waived alimony.

The suit was not contested. Mrs. Roberts testified she and her husband separated several times and that he was irritable and created stormy scenes in an effort to compel her to get money from her relatives.

On some occasions, she said, these scenes were created at the table and Roberts threw things around and broke dishes. He explained his need of money, she said, on the ground that he had become involved in speculation. She testified that once when they lived on Von Versen avenue the landlord threatened to force them to move because of these disturbances.

Miss Marie Bakewell, sister of the plaintiff, testified that Roberts' conduct made Mrs. Roberts extremely nervous.

ILLINOIS RATE RAISE FAILS

State Commission Rejects Charge of 2.4 Cents Per Mile.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 15.—Illinois railroads today were refused permission by the State Public Utilities Commission to increase passenger rates between points in Illinois from 2 cents a mile, and the fare fixed by statute, to 2.4 cents a mile.

The roads, it is said, will appeal to the United States courts.

PART OF FERRY STREET SINKS

Section Over Sewer Settles Several Feet.

A section of Ferry street between Fourteenth street and Blair avenue, immediately above the Harlem Creek sewer, settled several feet about noon today.

An automobile truck owned by William Heldbreder and standing in front of his home at 1412 Ferry street sank to the hubs.

BRITISH CABLE CENSOR GIVEN THREE YEAR PRISON SENTENCE

Sent "Tribute of Information" to Friend With no Intention of Aiding Enemy.

LONDON, May 15.—A sentence of three years' penal servitude was imposed on an assistant censor of cables at the Press Bureau here the other day for "collecting without authority and communicating information calculated to be useful to the enemy, contrary to the defense of the realm regulations." The censor was Anthony Thomas Spalding, 48 years of age. The case was the first of its kind in the war.

The trial was held in camera. The prisoner was found guilty of sending to a friend in the North of England what he called "tribute of information." The friend communicated the information to others, one of whom actually made written copies of the letters. A special Constable at Manchester informed the Court.

In sentencing the prisoner, the Court said: "The prisoner did not do these things to assist the enemy, or his life would have been forfeited. A censorship is highly repugnant to the feelings of the English people and can only stand on the understanding that the persons entrusted with the duties act in the highest good faith."

FRENCH SOLDIER BACK FROM TRENCHES LOSES POCKETBOOK

Money Replaced From Mullapathy Fund; Is on Way to San Francisco on Month's Furlough.

When Armand Anrac, soldier of France, arrived in St. Louis this morning on his way from the trenches to his home in San Francisco he discovered he had lost his pocketbook, containing $50. Arrangements for his needs while here were made by Miss Natalie Norton, inspector for the Mullapathy Relief Fund, and his loss was replaced out of that fund.

Anrac had been in the United States 14 years when the war began. He was a reservist and left San Francisco at once for France. He has three shrapnel wounds, one in the left leg below the knee, one in the left shoulder and one on the left side of the head. The wounds were received in three separate engagements. He is on furlough and will return to France in a month.

P. C. KNOX JR., GETS DIVORCE

Wife Doesn't Contest Suit Owing to Settlement Out of Court.

RENO, Nev., May 15.—Phlander C. Knox Jr., son of Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, obtained a divorce yesterday on the ground of desertion. Mrs. Knox did not contest the suit. She withdrew her opposition owing to a settlement out of court.

Mrs. Knox was formerly Miss May G. Boller, a store employee. She and Knox were married when he was a student in a preparatory school.

YOUTH SAYS HE KILLED WOMAN AND POLICEMAN

Tells Police He Received $3000 for Murder of Divorced Wife of St. Paul Contractor.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Joseph Redenbaugh, alias Edward Hamilton, 19 years old, last night confessed, according to the police, that he shot and killed Mrs. Alice McQuillan Dunn, divorced wife of H. C. Dunn, St. Paul contractor, in St. Paul, April 12, and that he shot and killed Policeman George Connelly of Minneapolis, who arrested him for speeding.

The prisoner also confessed, according to the police, that he robbed the University Place Bank at University Place, Neb.; that he robbed a safe in Ripley, Ok., and that he had stolen and sold a score or more automobiles in Eastern and Middle West cities.

Was Offered $2000.

Redenbaugh told the police the murder of Mrs. Dunn was first considered last October, and charged that a bartender in St. Paul had planned the details. He told the officers that when he was first approached about the killing of Mrs. Dunn he was told that he could get $2000 for "the job," but that he did not feel like it at the time, and went to University Place, where he robbed the bank.

He said after the death of Connelly he went again to the man who had approached him about killing Mrs. Dunn and told him he was ready. He said Frank McCool, who accompanied him when Connelly was killed, was with him, and was to share in the pay for killing Mrs. Dunn and that they demanded $2000.

Went West After Murder.

He then detailed, according to the police, the manner in which he entered the home of Mrs. Dunn and how he killed the woman and told of receiving his pay. He said he came West immediately and that two bellboys who were with him he had brought from Salt Lake, but that they had nothing to do with the two murders. St. Paul and Minneapolis officers will arrive today, according to the police, and will ask the extradition of Redenbaugh.

Redenbaugh told the police that he was first taken into custody for robbery when he was 3 years old and was given a year and a half in a detention home. He said that he was then sent to a reform school but escaped several times and finally went to Denver, thence to Wyoming. He said that in 1911 he went to Salem, Ore., where he was arrested and sentenced to the Oregon Reform School for a "job," but that he escaped from that institution.

Man Robbed of Watch by Negroes.

An hour after Silas Miranda of Springfield, Ill., had been robbed of his gold watch by a negro at Thirteenth and Gay streets last night, detectives arrested a negro woman who had the watch in her possession. They also arrested a negro who the negro said had given her the watch.

HAIR OFTEN RUINED BY WASHING WITH SOAP

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—ADV.

TWO TESTS FOR ANY CIGARETTE

Here are a couple of tests which, according to a recognized authority on tobacco blending, will help the average smoker choose a more satisfying cigarette.

The first test is for coolness, which simply means more smoking comfort. Hold it in your mouth for a moment and it "feels" around against your tongue and throat. Now blow out the smoke.

If the cigarette contains a high grade of mild tobacco leaves, blended in just the right proportion, it will feel cool and smooth both to your throat and to your tongue.

On the other hand, if the cigarette contains inferior grades of tobacco or much hidden strands of strong, oily leaf, you will feel a stinging at the tip of your tongue or that "sandpaper" in your throat.

The second test is for how you feel after smoking all day.

If the tobacco in the cigarette is graded as to bring out the best qualities, you will be able to smoke without feeling any effect from it. But with another cigarette in which the blend is less skillful, even though the tobacco are of the best grade, you will find some towards the end of the day that you are likely to have a "smoked" feeling.

Clip out these tests and try them on Fatima

Will Your Cigarette Pass These Two Tests?

If it does, it's a good one—stick to it whether it happens to be Fatima or some other cigarette.

But if it doesn't, just try these two tests on Fatima.

Here is another kind of Fatima proof: For over 8 years, Fatimas have been the largest-selling cigarette costing over 10c. And, except in one or two localities, Fatima's big lead is increasing faster today than ever—in spite of the big sales of cheaper cigarettes, packed to imitate Fatima.

"SMATTER POP?"—SOME BEGINNERS DON'T SEEM TO REQUIRE 'EM AT THAT.—BY C. M. PAYNE.

MAY 8.—I have just returned from Red Cross headquarters. I hope they will send me to the front where I can get killed. The world has ended for me. It all began at breakfast. When we sat down to the table I was still angry about that picture show.

"What's the matter?" asked John. "Aren't you feeling well?"

"I was too unhappy to say anything, but I held back my tears. When John came over to kiss me good-by."

I turned my head aside. "Don't you want to kiss me good-by?" I asked John.

I was not to be cajoled like a child. "Come to the door with me," said John.

I did not move. The door slammed on John and all my hopes for happiness. John could have kissed me good-by if he had wanted to. Tonight I shall tell him the end has come. I haven't even ordered meat for supper.

one day he heard them plotting to make the King believe that he was not faithful and was seeking to take his life to gain the favor of a rival King in another country.

"I'll show the King I am not the knave these fellows would make me out," said Vetto, "but life is not as smooth as I thought it would be in a palace. When I was a poor peasant no one was jealous of me, but here everyone seems to wish me ill because the King is fond of me."

The jealous attendants kept on with their plotting and all Vetto could do was to wait and see what happened.

One day he heard one of them telling the King that his rival was coming with a large army of soldiers to take the palace, and he was sure that Vetto had told the rival King of the secret passage through the forest that led to the palace under ground.

Vetto had never before heard of the underground passage, and he felt sure the other attendants must be guilty of the very thing of which they were accusing him.

That night Vetto watched and saw the attendant who had told the King about him leave the palace and go into the forest. He followed him into a cave and along a long, dark passage.

This secret passage led to the sea, and here the rival King was waiting with his ships filled with soldiers to learn when and how to reach the palace of Vetto's King.

Vetto hid and heard all that passed, and when the attendant started to go back Vetto jumped out from his hiding place and overpowered him and bound him with strong ropes.

The rival King was first to enter the secret passage to the castle, and after he was well inside Vetto sprang at him with a wild cry in which the bound attendant joined, thinking his hour had come.

The soldiers of the rival King, thinking the passage was filled with soldiers bound the passage was filled with soldiers of Vetto's King, quickly fled and Vetto bound their King as he had the attendant. Vetto then went back to the palace and told his King what had happened and when the King went to the secret passage and found his false attendant and the rival King prisoners he believed all Vetto told him.

The false attendants would have suffered harsh punishment if Vetto had not begged the King to forgive them because, after all, the rival King was a prisoner through their treachery.

Vetto's King became King over the rival King's country, as well as his own, and wished to make Vetto a lord and ruler over part, but Vetto said he had lived in a palace as long as he wished and all he would ask was a little house and garden far away from all the pomp and splendor of court life. And though the King did not want to let him go, he felt he owed a great deal to Vetto and so he granted his wish. But the King often visits Vetto in his little home, where all is restful, and when he leaves him each time he tells him he is far happier in his humble home than the King is in his palace.

So, after all, that which we most wish for oftentimes proves to be the thing that brings us the least happiness. (Copyright, 1917, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

An' when she puts her head down low an' has a lot o' fun, if Rover growls or barks at her, you bet he has to fly, 'cause Mary Ann starts after him with murder in her eye. One day when Dolly Gray was good I petted her a while, but suddenly she kicked her heels in awful naughty style. She knocked me down an' I got up an' said I'd tell my Ma. But Dolly Gray just blinked her eyes an' grinned an' answered, "Bah-ah!"

The Sandman Story For To-night

BY MRS. P. A. WALKER.

VETTO'S WISH.

VETTO was a poor peasant boy who worked all day in the fields and received little pay for his work.

"Teish-ho!" sighed Vetto one day. "I wish I could live at the palace with the King; it must be a fine thing to be a King's favorite."

The wish was hardly out of his lips when Vetto saw a cloud of dust down the road, and the next minute a horse came dashing along with his rider hanging from the saddle. Vetto dropped his hoe and jumped over the wall, and as the horse ran along he jumped and caught its dangling bridle and brought the animal to a halt. He helped the rider to untangle his foot from the trappings, and then Vetto saw the rider was handsomely dressed and the horse had a silver bridle and trimmings.

"You shall be well paid for this, my good man," said the rider, "for you have saved my life. What can I do for you?"

Before Vetto could reply several horsemen came hurrying up. "Are you safe, your majesty?" they asked.

"I am uninjured, thanks to this young fellow," was the reply, "but for him I might have been killed, for not one of you was brave enough to try to stop the beast when he started to run."

Vetto knew, of course, it must be the King when he heard the attendants call him "your majesty," and when again the King asked what he could do for him, Vetto replied he should like to live at the palace and serve him.

"That you shall, my brave fellow," said the King. "Come along with me at once."

For a time Vetto felt he was in a dream, everything was so beautiful. He wore a fine velvet suit and rode a big black horse and went about with the King whenever he went out.

After a while Vetto noticed that the other attendants looked at him with dislike when the King was not about, and
